REQUEST FOR SPECIFIC CASE REVIEW

A policy to allow the local family court, Department of Human Services, private child placement agency, and other interested parties, as defined in 1984 PA 422, as amended by 1986 PA 159, 1989 PA 74, and 1997 PA 170, MCL §§ 722.131-139a; MSA §§ 25.360(1)-360(9a), to request a specific case to be reviewed by a local board.

1. A family court, local Department of Human Services office, private child placement agency, or other interested party as defined in the law involved with cases which are subject to review by a local board may request that a specific case be reviewed in the following manner:
 - a. Reviews may be requested for specific cases by any person having authority over the case in a local family court, Department of Human Services office, or private placement agency.
 - b. Reviews for specific cases are to be requested in writing using this form or by supply the required information. The request form can be obtained by contacting the program office in Lansing, Detroit, or Gaylord.
 - c. Requests for review are to be received in sufficient time to allow the Foster Care Review Board Program staff to schedule the review.
2. Requests will be honored to the extent possible depending on the number of requests made and the number of cases already scheduled during a specific period.
3. Once a requested case is reviewed, it will continue to be scheduled for review until permanency is achieved.
4. Any exception to the above procedures must be approved by the Foster Care Review Board Program Manager.
5. Requests for reviews should be sent from counties to a Program Office as follows:
